Have given their evidence and Schley assumes full responsibility for the Brooklyn's famous "loop." It was a long story and has taken a great deal of time to tell. Our tale is more to the point and quickly told. We have just received the biggest single shipment of wire goods in the history of our house—

If Elected Jailer He Will Give the Profits of the Office to His Mother and Sister.

Appreciates the Honor Conferred on Him and Promises His Personal Attention to Duties of the Position.

To the Democrats of Mason County: I accept, with full appreciation, the honor of your nomination as the Democratic candidate for Jailer of Mason County, and return to you the most sincere thanks of our family for past kindnesses to our father and your more than kind consideration of us in the sad hour of his death.

He labored faithfully to deserve your confidence, and the knowledge of its full possession was the greatest gratification of his life; and I feel that no greater honor could come to me than to be allowed to fill his place upon the ticket of a party that he loved so much. I regret that it will not be possible for me to canvass the county, as only three days remain before election day. I am, therefore, compelled to solicit the assistance and votes of my fellow citizens through the press. I kindly ask my friends to give me as much of their time, until after election day, as they possibly can. Upon you I must depend for success.

I promise that if elected I will give to the duties of the office my personal attention, and its profits to my mother and sister. I have had four years experience in the office, under my father, and feel fully able to discharge its duties. My politics are and will always be the same as were my father's, and I shall always be grateful to those who aid me in this struggle.

Soliciting the aid and votes of all my fellow citizens, I remain, yours respectfully,

W. W. McILVAIN.

Mightn't it be said of Booker Washington that he swapped his birthright for a mess of pottage, in dining at the White House?

Managers Russell, Dye and Frank announce an engagement with Long Bros. Pawnee Bill's and May Lillie's pretty love romance and historical military play, "Madeline of Fort Reno," Thursday, Nov. 7th. The five tickets will be given to the first five boys or girls composing and sending in the best compositions or stories of famous old historical Fort Reno. Write your story, submit it to your parents or teacher, then copy it on a postal card and mail to "Manager of Madeline of Fort Reno," care postoffice. The names of the winners will appear in the entrance of the theatre on the day of the performance.

To the Voters of Mason County.

I wish to say that I, too, heartily endorse the action of our chairman in his appointment of W. W. McIlvain to succeed his father as Jailer of Mason County, as he is certainly the logical one.

I do this for the simple reason that I have a host of friends throughout the county that claim that I should succeed Uncle Ike, but Providence has intervened and taken our venerable banner-bearer away before the time allotted by us, which I know we all deeply mourn.

I therefore urge that all my friends get to the polls on next Tuesday morning and use their utmost endeavors to secure Win's election, with the rest of the ticket.

T. F. Goodwin.

Between the ages of fifteen and forty-five, the time when womanhood begins and motherhood ends, it is estimated that the aggregate term of woman's suffering is ten years. Ten years out of thirty! One third of the best part of a woman's life sacrificed! Think of the enormous loss of time! But time is not all that is lost. Those years of suffering steal the bloom from the cheeks, the brightness from the eyes, the fairness from the form. They write their record in many a crease and wrinkle. What a boon then to woman, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It promotes perfect regularity, dries up debilitating drains, heals ulceration, cures female weakness, and establishes the delicate womanly organs in vigorous and permanent health. No other medicine can do for woman what is done by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

But Little Change in Prices Noted Last Week—Demand Strongest for Colory Grades.

	Week.	1901.	1900.
Offerings.....	1,087	671
Rejections.....	301	165
Actual sales.....	786	506
Per cent. rejections.....	27 3/4	24 1/4
Receipts.....	500	324

The 1,087 hds. offered averaged $7.58 per 100 pounds, as against $8.29 for the 1,282 hds. for the previous week and $8.61 for the 671 hds. for the corresponding week of last year.

The Western Tobacco Journal says in part: "The demand was, as usual, strongest for the colory goods. They sold at prices that were slightly improved over previous week, and were actively bid upon. These kinds are as strong now as they have ever been. Some of the good red fillers that were in prime condition also sold well, and good leaf brought satisfactory prices, though in most instances nearer inside figures. Tips and lugs presented no change, while fancy tobaccos were entirely absent.

"What makes the price on good colory tobacco all the stronger is the fact that the new crop is curing up brown and that little color can be expected. It will include only a fair proportion of good red leaf, and this ought to result in better prices of such kind of the old crop before long.

"The absence of fancy leaf made high prices impossible, although 16 cents was realized on good leaf.

"The prospects of the market are without change. The stocks are still comparatively large but will from now on be steadily reduced, as offerings are exceeding receipts.

"The new crop will be quite late in making its appearance."
